

Day	Activity
Monday	Starter: Using the letters of your full name, how many other words can you create? Learning Intention: I can practice spelling words I need to know. Activity: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Copy each word out 3 times.</li> <li>➤ Write a sentence for each word.</li> <li>➤ Pick an activity from the Spelling Activities Grid.</li> </ul>
Tuesday	Learning Intention: I can use commas to correctly separate items in a list. Activity: We use commas in replace of using 'and' in lists. Look at a room in your house, out in the garden or when out for your daily exercise and make a list of everything you see. Remember to use commas to separate the items in your list. How might you be successful with this task? Create your own success criteria before you start! Extension: Can you think of other ways we use commas? Write them down!
Wednesday	Learning Intention: I can write and structure a letter of thanks. Activity: Throughout this year we have looked at how to write letters. I will upload a reminder of how to structure letters. I would like you to write a letter to a person, it could be anyone, who has helped you throughout this home learning period and thank them. If you can, try and send or deliver the letter to the person you have wrote it to. You might want to write a letter of thanks to your friend for keeping in touch, or to your adult at home for help with your work.
Thursday	Learning Intention: Using my knowledge of a book or film I can explain what I would do if I was one of the characters.

	Activity: Using a book or film that you have at home, choose 3 important events from the text and explain how you would have handled them differently to the characters in the story. Explain how it may have changed the outcome of the story in either a small or big way. Be insightful here and think of the cause and effect. Sometimes your smallest action can have a major impact on others.
Friday	